

Moran Hires Jennie Guttery of Alton to Staff

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Jennie Guttery of Alton has been hired to serve as a legislative assistant in Moran's Washington, D.C. office.

"Jennie is an important addition to our staff, and I am pleased to have her working for the people of the First District," Moran said. "Jennie has excelled in academics and in her professional life, and it's good to have her knowledge and experience working to serve Kansans."

Guttery is a 1994 graduate of Osborne High School and a 1998 graduate of Cornell University in New York with a Bachelor's Degree in Policy Analysis. She received her Master of Science in International Social Policy and Planning from The London School of Economics in 1999 and her Juris Doctor from the University of Kansas School of Law in May 2002.

Guttery has worked for State Senator Janis K. Lee, the U.S. International Trade Commission, the Office of the General Counsel in Washington, D.C., the U.S. Attorney's Office in Kansas City and for the Kansas Attorney General's Office in Topeka. She has also worked in the U.S. Department of Treasury's Office of Economic Policy and for former U.S. Senator Nancy Kassebaum Baker. Most recently, Guttery has been working for a national non-profit organization to promote transportation and highway safety legislation in Washington, D.C.

"Congressman Moran has done a commendable job representing the needs of Kansans and serving his constituents," Guttery said. "It is an honor to work for my hometown Congressman, and I am looking forward to being a part of his Washington, D.C. staff."

As a legislative assistant, Guttery will work on researching legislation for the people of the First District.

Jennie is the daughter of Alan and Debby Guttery of Alton.

###